CHAPTER 1

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND "THE MARRIAGE ORDINANCE."

(Assented to June 11th, 1931.)

The Commissioner of the Yukon Territory, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of said Territory, enacts as follows:

(1)

"The Marriage Ordinance," being Chapter 60 of the Ordinances of the Yukon Territory, 1914, is hereby amended by striking out section 11 of the said Ordinance and substituting therefor the following:

Marriage
Ordinance
amended.

"11. (1) If one or both of the parties to an intended marriage are under the age of twenty-one years, then before a marriage license is issued in respect thereof, or, in case where no marriage license is required, then before the publication of the banns thereof, or before any such marriage is performed or contracted, one of the parties to the intended marriage shall deposit with the issuer of marriage licenses, or with the minister or clergyman or other person authorized by this Ordinance to perform the marriage ceremony, a consent thereto signed by the persons hereinafter mentioned.

Where
parties
under 21
consent to be obtained.

(2) The persons whose consent shall be deposited are as follows:

Parties
whose consent
required.

(a) The father and mother of or such of them as may be living of each of the parties to the intended marriage where either of the parties is under the age of eighteen years, and the father or the mother where either of the parties is between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one years.

(b) If both the father and mother of either or both of the parties to the intended marriage are not then living, then a lawfully appointed guardian or the acknowledged guardian who may have brought up or may for three years immediately preceding the intended marriage have supported or protected such party or parties respectively.

Where party
over 18
maintaining self apart
from parents.

Provided that where either of the contracting parties is of the age of at least eighteen years, and is maintaining himself or herself and living apart from his or her parents, he or she need not obtain such consent, but shall make an affidavit clearly setting out the above facts, and file the same with the issuer of the license.

Provided further that where either of the contracting parties is of the age of at least eighteen years, and has lived apart from his or her parents for a period of not less than three months immediately preceding the date on which the license is applied for without having during such time received financial aid or support from such parents, an issuer of licenses may, on such facts being duly verified by affidavit to his satisfaction, issue a license without the consent of the parent or parents of such contracting party.

Parties over 18 may apply
to Court
for order.

Provided further that any person between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one, whose parent or parents refuse consent, may apply to the Judge of the Territorial Court, and such Judge may, in his discretion, grant an order that a marriage license may issue notwithstanding the lack of such consent.
